Dear Senator ,

Respectfully, I urge you to review the enclosed film "Barrel of a Gun" in your decision-making process regarding the nomination of Mr. Debo Adegbile to serve as head of the Civil Rights Division of the United States Department of Justice.

Produced and directed by Philadelphians, who have keen insight into the circumstances and cultural significance of the murder of Officer Faulkner, this unbiased film can provide additional perspective regarding the judgment of those who continue to perpetuate the false narrative surrounding the just conviction of cop-killer Mumia Abu Jamal.

With Officer Faulkner's widow denied the ability to testify before the Senate, a full presentation of the facts surrounding Jamal's heinous act and those who continue to profit and advance from Officer Faulkner's murder must come to light.

If I can serve as a resource to help provide further information regarding the torturous activities of those who continue to heap pain on the family and friends of Officer Faulkner and the law enforcement community, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,
